PORTLAND, MAINE (January 10, 2007) – On Sunday, January 21, The Comedy Connection will host a comedy night with George Hamm. This show will raise money for employees of The Stadium where 60 people have been out of work since New Year's Eve when this Congress Street business was severely damaged by vandalism. Employees are expected to be out of work for the next month or two.

The Comedy Connection will donate 100% of the proceeds raised during this evening to these 60 Stadium employees. George Hamm is donating his time and will be joined by two or three additional comedians who will also donate their time for the evening.
